A day Conference outline to encourage deeper engagement with Scripture

Title: How might we ‘do Bible better’ in our parish and personal lives?

Timing: One possibility is to coincide with the change of Gospel in the lectionary with a key note speaker who could offer an overview of that Gospel – a New Testament scholar with a ‘popular touch’.

Concept: a day event at a convenient place within the diocese, hosted by the Bishop [that shows its importance in the life of a diocese], and consisting of:

- a key note speaker
- two 60 minute long workshops/seminars
- a short session on the helpful resources
- worship (a Service of the Word themed around Scripture)

Possible Workshops during such a day

- Going further into the Gospel – A follow on from the key note address for those wishing to dig deeper into the Gospel.

- Facing the challenge of biblical illiteracy in our churches – How do we challenge our congregations to know their Bible better? What are the barriers to greater biblical literacy? A workshop looking at a couple of the schemes that encourage a serious reading of the Bible over a protracted period of time e.g. ‘Reading the whole Bible in a year’ or ‘Reading the New Testament and Psalms during Lent’.

  Possible resources:
  Bible Challenge http://goo.gl/Sg98Wt and http://goo.gl/wnK8fc

- What might we do next Lent? – exploring possible Lent courses that encourage a deeper engagement with Scripture and not simply using it as a peg to hang other explorations on.

  Possible resources: see the Bible Study Courses suitable for Lent or five sessions section on this web-site. Also the Canterbury Course, the Wau Course and Fullness of Life Course. The How might Anglicans better interpret what we read in the Bible? A Study Guide Also look at the Mapping of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John [Bible Study Maps] on the Norwich Diocesan online shop website: http://shop.dioceseofnorwich.org/

- Understanding the lectionary – engaging with the rationale behind why, as Anglicans, we use a lectionary and what the lectionary says about our understanding of the Scriptures.

  Possible resources: Lectionary Story 1 & 2 in the resources from the BILC project http://goo.gl/WD7c4A and http://goo.gl/Bh127P

- Making more of "Services of the Word" – we make very creative use of the ‘Service of the Word’ at Christmas in our Carol services and often around Passion-tide and Easter. We allow Scriptures to tell the story. Could we do this more often and explore other themes and areas of life biblically?

  Possible resources: Case Study – Engaging with the Word in the resources from the BILC project http://goo.gl/DKeafO

- Being more intentional about the place of Scripture in our worship – Scripture and scriptural images abound in our liturgies but do most of those in the pew know where they appear in Scripture? A workshop exploring the way Scripture is used in our liturgies and the effect these have on our worship.

- Studying the Gospels in parallel – the Bible gives us four parallel lives of Jesus. Usually, we tend to either conflate them into one or simply look at one of these accounts. What might it be like to explore them in parallel with all the relevant texts before us at the same time; does this add a helpful extra dimension to our study of this part of the Bible?

  Possible resources: there are six study outlines with the parallel texts in Parallel Lives of Jesus – Four Gospels, One Story by Edward Adams pub SPCK 2011. These explore the Baptism of Jesus, the Feeding of the 5,000, the Walking on Water, the Transfiguration, the Death of Jesus and the Empty Tomb.

- Understanding hermeneutics through h+ - The British and Foreign Bible Society, one of the ‘Bible Society family’ worldwide has written a course to help members of congregations to understand hermeneutics – the way we seek to understand and interpret the Bible. While this workshop is not long enough to undertake the course it might be an opportunity to explore with others the possibility of putting on the course in a diocese, a deanery, a town or village.

  Possible resources: the h+ website is http://www.hplus.org.uk/

- Windows into Scripture other parts of the Communion might offer us – the Anglican Communion has 85 million members in over 165 countries so it is likely that we will approach Scripture and see things within it differently. What, therefore, can we learn from others in the Communion? How might we enable this learning to take place?

  Possible resources: people from other parts of the Communion who might be living in your locality or visiting. Also there are eight ‘windows’ into how different parts of the Communion see the Bible in their life in Section 2 of the BILC report Deep Engagement; Fresh Discovery. See pages 13-38 of the report at http://goo.gl/YC09oF

Your Word is a light to my path

The word of God is living and active.
It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart.
All is open and laid bare before the eyes of him
to whom we give account.
We confess our sins in penitence and faith.

May your loving mercy come to me, O Lord,
and your salvation according to your word:
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.
Your word is a lantern to my feet and a light to my path:
Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.
O let your mercy come to me that I may
for your law is my delight:
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Psalm 119: 105-112

Silence

Reading: 2 Timothy 3:10-17

Silence

The Word of life which was from the beginning
we proclaim to you.
The darkness is passing away
and the true light is already shining;
the Word of life which was from the beginning.
That which we heard, which we saw with our eyes,
and touched with our hands,
we proclaim to you.
For our fellowship is with the Father,
and with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
The Word of life which was from the beginning
we proclaim to you.

We pray for strength to follow Jesus.
Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Jesus said: ‘Whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant,’
Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.
Jesus said: 'Unless you change and become humble like little children, you can never enter the kingdom of heaven.'
Saviour, we hear your call.
Help us to follow.

Jesus said: 'Be merciful as your Father is merciful; love your enemies and do good to them.'
Saviour, we hear your call.
Help us to follow.

Jesus said: 'Love one another, as I love you; there is no greater love than this, to lay down your life for your friends.'
Saviour, we hear your call.
Help us to follow.

Jesus said: 'Go to people everywhere and make them my disciples, and I will be with you always, to the end of time.'
Saviour, we hear your call.
Help us to follow.

God of mercy, you know us and love us and hear our prayer: keep us in the eternal fellowship of Jesus Christ our Saviour.
Amen.

Almighty God, we thank you for the gift of your holy word. May it be a lantern to our feet, a light upon our paths, and a strength to our lives. Take us and use us to love and serve all people in the power of the Holy Spirit and in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
