Annual Report of the Trustees

The Trustees are pleased to present their Report and Financial Statements for the year to 31 December 2016.

Deriving from the ancient Celtic and Saxon churches of the British Isles, Anglicanism found its distinctive identity in the sixteenth and seventeenth century Reformation, when the separate Church of England, along with the Church of Ireland and the Scottish Episcopal Church, came into being. At the time of the American Revolution, an autonomous Episcopal Church was founded in the United States, and later Anglican or Episcopal churches were founded across the globe as a result of the missionary movements of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Many of these were given autonomy as provinces in the course of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. In South Asia, the United Churches, formed between Anglican and several Protestant traditions, also joined the Anglican Communion, as did churches elsewhere such as the Spanish Episcopal Reformed Church and the Lusitanian Church of Portugal.

Today, the Anglican Communion consists of an estimated 85 million Christians who are members of 34 provinces (35 as of July 2017), four United Churches, and six other churches, spread across the globe.

Structure, Governance and Management

The churches of the Anglican Communion are held together by bonds of affection and common loyalty, expressed through links with the Archbishop of Canterbury as the Focus for Unity, and the Instruments of Communion: The Lambeth Conference; The Primates' Meeting; The Anglican Consultative Council.

- The Archbishop of Canterbury: The Churches are all in communion with the See of Canterbury in the Church of England, and thus the Archbishop of Canterbury in his person and ministry is the unique focus of Anglican unity. He calls the Lambeth Conference and Primates' Meeting, and is President of the Anglican Consultative Council. The 105th Archbishop of Canterbury in succession to St Augustine, The Most Revd and Rt Hon Justin Welby, was enthroned in March 2013.
- The Lambeth Conference: Every ten years or so, the Archbishop of Canterbury invites the bishops of the Anglican Communion to join with him in prayer, study and discernment, normally at Canterbury Cathedral and the campus of the University of Kent. Over 650 bishops were welcomed to the last Lambeth Conference in 2008.
- The Primates' Meeting: Since 1979 the Archbishop of Canterbury has invited the primates (ie the presiding bishop, archbishop or moderator) of the 38 provinces to join him in regular meetings for consultation, prayer and reflection on theological, social and international matters.
- The Anglican Consultative Council: In 1968 the bishops of the Lambeth Conference requested the establishment of a body representative of all sections of the churches (bishops, clergy and laity) to co-ordinate international Anglican ecumenical and mission work. With the consent of the legislative bodies of all the provinces, the Anglican Consultative Council (ACC) was established in 1971, and has met regularly since.

The governing document of the ACC is the Constitution to which the member churches of the Anglican Communion subscribe. As the only Instrument of Communion with a constitution, the ACC exercises functions on behalf of the other Instruments as well as on its own behalf, mainly the employment of staff at the Anglican Communion Office and the holding of funds.

Both the ACC and the Primates' Meeting elect a standing committee from among their own number. In a recent change to the Constitution of the ACC, and in an effort to draw the Instruments closer together and strengthen the common life of the Communion, the members of the Primates' Standing Committee were made ex-officio members of ACC and of its Standing Committee. This Standing Committee meets annually, and its members for the time being are the trustees of the ACC. Procedures have been put in place to ensure that the Trustees are made aware of their responsibilities at their first meeting.

The Trustees are aware of the complexity of the relationships with other organisations within the Anglican Communion. Of particular significance is the common interest in pursuit of its charitable objectives that the ACC shares with the Lambeth Conference Company because the Lambeth Conference is one of the Instruments of Communion. ACC resumed financial contributions to the Lambeth Conference in 2009.

The Trustees consider the Board of Trustees and the Secretary General comprise the key management personnel of the charity in charge of directing and controlling, running and operating the charity on a day to day basis.

The Anglican Communion Office, based in London, is the permanent secretariat for the Instruments of Communion. The secretariat is responsible for organising all meetings of the conciliar Instruments of Communion, as well as organising and supporting the Commissions, working parties and Networks of the Communion as appropriate. Funding comes from the Inter-Anglican budget to which all member churches contribute according to their means. Member churches are also invited to contribute to special projects, such as the Personal Emergencies Fund and various other projects and emergencies that arise.

The Anglican Communion Office is based at St Andrew's House, London, under the leadership of the Secretary General. In addition to its offices, St Andrew's House offers a small number of rooms as accommodation for visitors.

Public Benefit

The Trustees believe that the Christian faith is of benefit to individuals and to society since it works towards a holistic vision of a transformed and peace-filled community and the flourishing of humankind and all creation. The stated objective of the ACC is 'to advance the Christian religion and in particular to promote the unity and purposes of the Churches of the Anglican Communion in mission and evangelism, ecumenical relations, communication, administration and finance'. In pursuing this objective the ACC serves the Anglican Communion's life and work within God's mission. The Communion has set out its understanding of this life and work in its Five Marks of Mission:

- to proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom;
- to teach, baptise and nurture new believers;
- to respond to human need by loving service;
- to seek to transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and to pursue peace and reconciliation;
- and to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth.

These Five Marks of Mission serve as a guide and help the churches within the Communion to live out mission in their local contexts and in a variety of ways.

In preparing this report the Trustees have complied with their duty to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Risk Management

During the year the Board of Trustees reviewed the risks to which the charity is exposed and was pleased to note the improvements that had been made since the previous review in the areas of governance and financial viability. The 2016 review considered key risks in relation to its operations, reviewed current controls and identified areas where controls could be improved. Procedures will be introduced to manage and reduce the risks identified, and to ensure that further reviews take place regularly.

The financial climate remains challenging prompting a review of expenditure to identify savings needed to accommodate the current economic environment. The Anglican Alliance is devoting resources to raising funds to complement existing donors and expand its work. In addition, during September 2017 the ACC's Trustees agreed that an exceptional grant of £72,526 will be made to the Anglican Alliance during 2017, in order to return the General fund from deficit to surplus.

The Trustees have prioritised spending in keeping with both existing and new sources of funding.

A review of communications highlighted the need to raise awareness of the ACC's plans and activities throughout the Communion, and this area of operation has been strengthened as set out later in the report.

Objectives, Achievements and Activities

The ACC has been constituted to facilitate, inter alia, the co-operative work of the member churches of the Anglican Communion, to consult about developments in the provinces, to develop agreed Anglican policies in the world mission of the Church and to encourage and guide Anglican participation in ecumenical dialogue and inter faith work at an international level.

The Anglican Communion Office

In order to serve best the aims of the ACC as set out in its Constitution, and all the Instruments of Communion, the work of the Anglican Communion Office, under the direction of the Secretary General, The Most Rev. Josiah Idowu-Fearon (Ph.D), is divided into eight departments. These are:

- The Secretary General's Office
- Communications
- Finance and Administration
- Mission
- Theological Studies
- Unity, Faith and Order
- Women in Church and Society
- Anglican Communion Office at the United Nations

The Secretary General's Office

The Instruments of Communion

The Secretary General's Office is responsible for the leadership and management of the work of the Anglican Communion Office and for carrying forward the meetings and programmatic work of the ACC, the Standing Committee, the Primates' Meeting and the Lambeth Conference.

The Most Reverend Josiah Idowu-Fearon was recruited to the role of Secretary General in 2015 and took up his appointment half way through that year. 2016 was the first full year of Archbishop Josiah's incumbency of the office of Secretary General.

A key role of the Anglican Communion Office and the Secretary General's office in particular, is to facilitate the Instruments of Communion. 2016 started with a gathering of Primates' at Canterbury to share fellowship and to address difficulties for the Communion over the decision of the Episcopal Church to amend its marriage canon. This gathering established the Archbishops' Task Group that met subsequently in the year to pursue strategies for those holding disparate views within the Communion to walk together.

In line with its three year schedule, the sixteenth meeting of the ACC took place in Lusaka in April with the theme Intentional Discipleship in a World of Differences. As at all previous meetings the ACC received a wide range of reports and presentations on life and ministry within the Communion. ACC passed a wide range of resolutions that continued key themes in the life of the Communion and set out a series of work streams for initiatives to further develop the Communion. The next ACC is planned for 2019.

Standing Committee met in Lusaka immediately before the ACC. Following elections the new ACC met immediately afterwards and made appointment decisions to the various committees, commissions etc.

Servicing and supporting all of these meetings is a major component of the work of the ACO and it is a privilege for the Secretary General and all ACO staff to meet colleagues from around the Communion through these meetings.

The least frequent Instrument of Communion is the Lambeth Conference. In 2016 it was proposed by the Archbishop of Canterbury that that next Lambeth Conference would be called in 2020 and this was accepted and welcomed by the Primates' Meeting and the ACC. By the end of 2016 early steps had been taken to establish the organisation required for the panning of the Conference, with the setting up of a Design Group under the Chairmanship of the Archbishop of Cape Town and plans to recruit a Chief Executive Officer for the Lambeth Conference Company, effectively to serve as Conference Director.

The diplomatic and representational role of the Secretary General

An important part of the role of the Secretary General is to visit widely within the Provinces of the Communion with a mission of encouragement, learning, prayer and fellowship. During 2016 Archbishop Josiah made visits to every continent, several on many occasions. As the differences and divisions in the Communion create challenges, visiting and engaging with those holding the widest variety of views is highly important. This personal mission has driven the allocation of the Secretary General's time and led to his developing a unique understanding and perspective on the state of Anglican churches throughout the Communion.

Anglican Communion Office

The Anglican Communion Office comprises a relatively small but highly committed team of individuals striving to support the Communion and fulfil the work mandated through the ACC. There is a constant tension between the amount of work to be undertaken and the resources available, almost always leading to compromise.

The significant external focus of the Secretary General has been recognised during 2016, leading to a decision to appoint, early in 2017 a senior staff member to provide leadership and management to the staff team in the role of Chief Operating Officer.

Communications

The biggest change in the department this year was the appointment of a new Director for Communications, Adrian Butcher, a former journalist with BBC News. He joined at the end of March. A freelance journalist, Gavin Drake, had been appointed Interim Editor of the Anglican Communion News Service (ACNS) in late 2015. He continued to oversee the daily bulletins posted on the ACNS website. Another freelance, Rachel Farmer, edited the quarterly magazine, Anglican World. At the end of 2016, a Communications Officer was recruited. Bernadette Kehoe, a former BBC World producer, assumes editorial responsibility for ACNS and Anglican World from January 2017.

Engaging with audiences

Work continues to engage with audiences across a range of platforms. The ACNS website has more than 1,000 hits a day and more than 6,500 subscribers receive the daily news bulletin, which provides links to the main stories on ACNS. We have more than 17,000 followers on Twitter and over 11,000 "likes" on Facebook. Our videos are seen by up to 1,500 viewers on YouTube. All of these audiences are growing. Anglican World has around 850 subscribers. Research was undertaken to examine what makes the magazine attractive and what else it could offer. More work will be done in 2017 to increase readership. Work will also be carried out in 2017 into translating more material on the website so that it is more accessible to non-English speakers. ACNS regularly runs stories about Communion life from across the world. In 2016 that included places as diverse as South Sudan, Pakistan, Uruguay and Fiji.

Major stories

There were a number of significant stories and events during 2016 in which Communications played a significant role. At the Anglican Consultative Council in Lusaka, Archdeacon Paul Fehely from Canada led the team as a consultant, because Adrian had joined only a week earlier. There was considerable output: daily news stories for the website; videos were commissioned and filmed (including some in Spanish, French, Cantonese and Portuguese); three press conferences were organised. A selection of stories, photographs and videos were later sent to all ACC members. Adrian and Paul also handled a separate, highly sensitive story about the Archbishop of Canterbury's family – providing a television interview for a worldwide audience.

Other significant stories included IARCCUM in Canterbury and Rome; the 200th anniversary of the Madhya Kerala diocese in south India and the enthronement of several Primates in Africa. A freelance videographer was commissioned to film the installation of the new Primate in Kenya.

Collaboration with others

A significant development has been the growing links with other Anglican agencies. The department has collaborated with CMS, the Mothers' Union, the Mission to Seafarers and UPSG. Adrian has organised a one-day conference with communicators from those agencies in January 2017 to explore possible ways to work together in future to make the most of tight budgets under which everyone works. There are plans to jointly commission with the MU a film about the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women in March 2017. In addition the department continues to work with others such as communicators within TEC, WCC and WACC.

Continuing Indaba

Continuing Indaba is a programme designed to enable mutual listening in the Anglican Communion. Continuing Indaba was mandated by ACC-14. Indaba is a Zulu word describing a community process for discernment on matters of significance. Such processes are common throughout Africa, Asia, the Pacific islands and the indigenous peoples of the Americas. Their aim is to further community life, not to solve issues. The project came to a successful conclusion early in 2016 and strands of the work are taken up by the Peace and Justice Network of the Communion.

Finance and Administration

The Finance and Administration Department has responsibility for financial matters, staff issues and services provided by the Anglican Communion Office such as provision for travel, organisation of meetings and the upkeep and maintenance of St Andrew's House.

Mission

The best decision anyone can ever make, at any point in life, in any circumstances, whoever they are, wherever they are, is to become a disciple of Jesus Christ – Archbishop Justin Welby

The Mission Department continues to strive to monitor the world mission trends and connecting with Anglican Communion and ecumenical mission realities in a rapidly changing world.

The key priority of Intentional Discipleship for the Mission Department and the Anglican Communion, shaped at the ACC-16 meeting in Lusaka in April, reflects such discernment from the changing world mission trends in the world and wider Christian family.

The past year saw the conclusion of the work of the Anglican Witness Core Group. In receiving the report, the ACC-16 “acknowledged with gratitude the work of the Anglican Witness Core Group accomplished in the last six years and particularly the work of advancing discipleship.”¹

The ACC-16 went further and called on “every province, diocese and parish in the Anglican Communion to adopt a clear focus on intentional discipleship and to produce resources to equip and enable the whole church to be effective in making new disciples of Jesus Christ” and asked “the Standing Committee to work with the Secretary General and Mission Department to effect a Season of Intentional Discipleship for a period covering ACCs 16, 17,18; and report back at ACC-17 on progress.”

The Book Report, Intentional Discipleship and Disciple-Making: An Anglican Guide to Christian Life and Formation, was published ahead of the ACC-16 both in hard copy as well as in PDF file, making it more and widely accessible, and will be translated in Spanish, Portuguese and other languages.

The web resource hub has been re-configured over the past year as was anticipated and most of it migrated from the Anglican Witness website to the ACO website and the former will be completely reconfigure with more links to the discipleship resources, and will continue to use the website for closed next year.

The year in review also saw the Anglican Communion Youth & Children Award launched at the ACC-16 and awarded to two youth discipleship initiatives, a ‘successful initiative’ in Rwanda and an ‘emerging initiative’ in Kenya, respectively. Kenya received a grant of £10,000 to support the new initiative that supports discipleship among university students. More will be shared on this front in next year’s report.

Looking forward to next year, putting together a framework for implementing and advancing the Season of Intentional Discipleship in the Anglican Communion for the next ten years or so will be a major priority for the Mission Department. This puts the Five Marks of Mission at the centre of the Anglican Communion’s understanding of the holistic/integral mission of the Triune God.

Along with overseeing ACC-16 resolutions of Youth and their representation in the decision making structures of the Anglican Communion provinces, there will be focus on supporting formation of new and exiting Companion (Partnership) links, and foster mutual interdependent relationships to enrich local and global mission continues to underpin the ethos and work of the Mission Department.

Theological Studies; The Bible in the Life of the Church

The Bible in the Life of the Church project mandated by ACC-14 published the report on phase 1 of its work Deep Engagement; Fresh Discovery in November 2012. The report contained over 50 electronic files on an accompanying memory stick offering educational resources to aid our engagement with Scripture. This report is now available electronically on Kindle, Nook and iTunes.

The work in this area came to a conclusion in 2016 with the launch of the full package of resources which was made widely available across the Communion in both printed and electronic forms. There are over 100 educational resources for encouraging a deeper engagement with Scripture across the Communion. The work will be further developed through the offices of a new appointment at the Anglican Communion Office of a Director for TEAC.

Unity, Faith and Order

Unity, Faith and Order serves the Anglican Communion's commitment to the visible unity of the Church, together with the intra-Anglican conversations about life in communion. Both stem from the same source: the prayer of our Lord Jesus Christ that his disciples may be one, so that the world may believe (John 17.21). The Anglican approach to achieving such unity is summarised in the "Four Principles of Anglican Engagement in Ecumenism" adopted by ACC-14 in Jamaica (2009):

1. The Goal: the full organic unity of the Church
2. The Task: recognising and receiving the Church in one another
3. The Process: unity by stages
4. The Content: common faith, sacraments and ministry

Unity, Faith and Order equips and supports all the bilateral ecumenical and full communion dialogues in which the Anglican Communion is engaged at the international level. It monitors developments in other churches, and ensures Anglican representation as appropriate to other world communions. The Anglican Communion is engaged in dialogues with the Lutheran, Methodist, Orthodox, Oriental Orthodox, Roman Catholic, and Reformed Churches. Topics range from theological anthropology to ecclesiology, ethics, Christology and Pneumatology, mission, and the nature of communion.

In 2016 an historic agreement was reached on the Holy Spirit and the mission of the Church by the Anglican-Oriental Orthodox dialogue. The Anglican-Orthodox dialogue began its common study on moral theology, beginning with end of life issues. The Anglican-Roman Catholic relationship celebrated 50 years in 2016. The International Anglican-Roman Catholic Commission on Unity and Mission (IARCCUM) met for the first time in Canterbury and Rome as part of the 50th anniversary celebrations. A Common Declaration was signed by Archbishop Just and Pope Benedict. The Anglican-Lutheran International Coordinating Committee concluded its five-year mandate; a common resource for the commemoration of 2017 was prepared. The International Reformed-Anglican Dialogue met to continue its common reflection on the Church as communion. There is ongoing commitment to common mission with those churches that are in full communion with the Anglican Communion, most notably with the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht, as well as the Mar Thoma Syrian Church, and the Iglesia Filipina Independiente.

Unity, Faith and Order equips and supports the work of the Inter-Anglican Standing Commission on Unity, Faith and Order (IASCUFO), a privileged forum that harvests the riches of ecumenical dialogue, and places them in dialogue with intra-Anglican dialogue on life as a communion of Churches. IASCUFO meets annually to engage in theological work to strengthen the life of the Anglican Communion, including the study of the Instruments of Communion and analysis of life as a communion of Churches.

On behalf of the Standing Committee, it monitors the reception of the Anglican Communion Covenant. It reviews the work of the ecumenical dialogues to ensure consistency among them and advises on their reception. In 2016 IASCUFO met in Cyprus, where it engaged with the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf.

ACC-16 produced eleven resolutions within the area of Unity, Faith and Order. These resolutions included the welcoming of three agreed statements from our bilateral dialogues with Orthodox, Oriental Orthodox and Methodist churches. It passed a resolution affirming the substance of the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification from the Lutheran-Roman Catholic dialogue; this resolution forms part of the Anglican Communion's contribution to the 2017 commemoration.

Unity, Faith and Order since 2015 includes two Networks: the Inter-Anglican Liturgical Consultation and the Anglican Communion Legal Advisers Network.

Women in Church and Society

The Director for Women in Church and Society has worked with women and men in the Anglican Communion to promote and enable the full inclusion of women's gifts, voices and concerns in the structures and decision-making processes of the Anglican Communion and in participating in God's mission in the world. The Director has related closely with the International Anglican Women's Network and other networks and bodies within and beyond the Communion in encouraging awareness, theological reflection and responses to issues of gender justice. She has also engaged with the Communion's ecumenical partners for joint action, for example, for the Sixteen Days of Activism against Gender based Violence, and with the international Side by Side faith movement for gender justice which has increased capacity to raise awareness and act for just relationships between women and men, girls and boys in all our communities.

The Networks of the Anglican Communion

The Anglican Communion has 12 international, themed Networks: Environmental; Women; Peace and Justice; Family; Francophone; Lusophone; Indigenous; Safe Church; Colleges and Universities of the Anglican Communion (CUAC); Inter Faith Concerns (NIFCON); Legal Advisors; Liturgical.

Through a variety of means such as email listservs, social media, occasional regional and international gatherings, and the publication of on-line and printed newsletters, reports and resources, the Networks tell the stories of grassroots experience, share news, theological and liturgical material, and information about models of mission, ministry and good practice. They join together in the role of advocacy where there are common concerns, and provide briefings to the Instruments of Communion.

For example, during 2016 the Family Network explored what it means for a family to be strong in the way of Christ and how Anglican ministries are supporting families to cope with the trauma of loss and stigma, welcome refugees fleeing persecution and war, and find what they need in Scripture to challenge early marriage and domestic violence. The Women's Network shared information and resources for International Women's Day and the 16 Days of Activism against gender-based violence, and began a project to create a theological teaching framework on gender issues for offering to Anglican theological colleges and schools. Colleges & Universities of the Anglican Communion began preparations for its triennial conference on 'Identity and Diversity: Citizenship, Vocation and the Common Good', scheduled for January 2017 in Chennai.

All Networks reported to the Anglican Consultative Council which met in April 2016 and representatives of several Networks ran workshops during the ACC meeting.

The Anglican Communion Office at the United Nations

The Anglican Communion Office at the United Nations (ACOUN) is based in New York and on behalf of the Anglican Communion facilitates its interface with the United Nations. The Anglican Consultative Council (ACC) has Category II (Special) status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), which permits consultation with the UN Secretariat on matters of mutual concern, attendance at ECOSOC meetings, and the submission of oral and written interventions relevant to ECOSOC's work. The Communion also has an accredited representative in Geneva supported by a small team of Anglicans who have a background in international issues.

In March, ACOUN gathered a delegation of 22 Anglican women from across the Anglican Communion to attend the 60th two-week session of the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW). The Priority Theme this year was "Women's Empowerment and the link to Sustainable Development." This review theme was "The elimination and prevention of all forms of violence against women and girls." Chair of the 60th session, H.E. Mr Antonio de Aguiar Patriota of Brazil, welcomed all delegates attending the two-week session noting that UNCSW "is a place to be for sharing experiences and learning how to take action." In preparation for the UNCSW60 session, our office worked with the ecumenical community and liaised with the ACO in London throughout the year. We also collaborated with The Episcopal Church, helping them to negotiate and learn how to coordinate with the UN. Prior to the session, our office engaged in fundraising for the delegates on bursaries, logistical arrangements for the group, and arrangements for obtaining UN ground passes. Several debriefing sessions on the events of the day also took place.

The ACO's Program Director for the Environment and Sustainable Communities, worked collaboratively with the Trinity Institute's (Trinity Church Wall Street) 2017 program on Water Justice, by initiating and organizing a Lenten series on water for congregational use across the Anglican Communion. The series, called "Reflections on the Water of Life: Meditations for the Five Sundays in Lent and Palm Sunday" drew upon the knowledge of members of the Anglican Communion Environmental Network from five diverse regions: New Zealand, Southern Africa, India, the United States and South America.

The Director also worked with various bishops and environmental staff of different Provinces who are pursuing Provincial/eco-regional meetings for the purpose of promoting more effective environmental stewardship. He has written and distributed "Suggestions for Discussions with Bishops about the Climate and Environmental Crisis," which addresses topics such as sustainable congregations and communities, the interrelationships among climate, water, and food issues, and the UN's Sustainable Development Goals.

An overview of our Volunteer Program during the program year

In 2016, we had three volunteer staff working with us on a permanent, but part-time basis. These volunteers bring a high level of expertise and skill to the ministry of the Office. They contributed to environmental program, and all other program areas. In addition, one paid part-time support staff worked in connection the Commission on the Status of Women, the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, and the Refugee and Migration Summit held at the UN (New York) in September.

Among our volunteers, Beth Adamson is Chair of the Working Group on Girls of the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW). She assists the General Program and Administrative Officer, in the work of our Office involving planning and preparations for the UNCSW. Catherine Skopic is the former Chair of the Environmental Committee of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. She has regularly attended the Commission on Sustainable Development for the Office, and numerous other environmental and human rights related events.

The Anglican Alliance: Development, Relief and Advocacy

The Anglican Alliance works to transform the unjust structures of society, enabling the marginalised and impoverished to raise their voices, to build a world free of poverty and injustice; and to work together as sisters and brothers throughout the world, sharing our skills and experiences and bearing witness to the Gospel as we respond to human need.

The Anglican Alliance's sixth year saw a reduction in expenditure but an increase in activities. A regional consultation for the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East was held and the process for appointing a facilitator for this key region begun. Cross-region consultations which brought together ecumenical partners to explore responses to human trafficking were held in Asia and Africa. The role of communications manager was managed on an adhoc basis via a consultant and with additional time from current staff.

The development pillar saw the Agents of Change course evaluated and the curriculum significantly rewritten. Umoja (CCMP) was developed and delivered across the communion, with a large gathering of facilitators held in Kenya. This was held jointly with Tearfund and the Mothers Union.

The advocacy pillar saw work on human trafficking and climate change with a significant piece of work going forward towards looking at climate change & food security issues

There were a number of global crises that the Alliance support responses to through their relief pillar. The most significant of these were the on-going civil war in South Sudan and the food shortages that came with it and the Ebola crisis which impacted several nations in the West of Africa. The Alliance continues to make a significant contribution to the co-ordination of responses and in sign posting individuals, churches and NGO's towards appropriate resources within the International Development sector and within the Anglican community.

The Alliance has continued effective partnership work around our three pillars of relief, advocacy and development.

Where the Alliance is now?

It is very evident that the original vision was well founded and provided a solid basis for social transformation: an alliance bringing together the churches and agencies of the Communion to share and strengthen their work in development, relief and advocacy, its relationships built on the shared Anglican Five Marks of Mission. It challenges traditional aid partnerships with their issues of power and dependency. It promotes the Church's vision for integral mission – what 'good news' means for the Church which is with the poor, for the poor and of the poor.

The Alliance starts this phase of its life in a strong reputational position but with a fragile financial platform, the need to grow and diversify the donor base has remained a key target during 2016 and will do so into 2017. The two experienced co-executive directors remain in place and they support a creative and well-qualified team across the communion. This small secretariat, based around the regions and in London, also creates an impetus to understand how to build partnerships for action: the Alliance has a small staff but is a large team – 88 million Anglicans around the world.

Financial Report for the Year to 31 December 2016

The ACC was incorporated as a company limited by guarantee on 12 July 2010.

The activities of the Anglican Alliance began as a restricted fund of The Anglican Consultative Council in 2011. A new charitable company, Anglican Alliance was incorporated on 3 January 2013 company number 7311767 and registered as a charity, number 1137273. The Trustees of the Anglican Consultative Council are the members of the Anglican Alliance and having significant control, the financial results of the Anglican Alliance for the year to 31 December 2016 have been included in these accounts.

The Balance Sheet sets out the overall financial position of the ACC at the end of December 2016. It should be noted that each fund category is dealt with in a separate column, which is referenced to notes in the accounts. The total fund balances at the end of 2016 (Reserves) were £2,312,272 (2015 £2,524,506).

Note 7 to the account gives the details of the ACC's investments, which were held in the COIF Charities Deposit Fund and CBF Church of England Deposit Fund. There were disposals of investments of £53,000 in the year and an increase in market value of £98,025 taking the total to £942,128 (2015 £897,103).

Cash decreased to £1,117,946 from £1,209,079 as set out in the Statement of Cash Flows. This reflected the fact that resources expended exceeded incoming resources during the year.

The main summary of financial transactions through the year is the Statement of Financial Activities or SOFA. This statement includes income and expenditure, transfers between the different funds and gains or losses on the values of investments. Separate supporting statements, set out in the same SOFA format, show in more detail General Fund transactions related to the Core Budget, Designated Funds, Special Project Funds, Endowment and the Property Reserve. Supplementary information is included in the notes to the accounts.

The General Fund generated net cash inflow of £494,857 (see Statement of Cash Flows) before transfers, which was lower than 2015. Core income increased by £151,050 to £2,115,459 during 2016 and core costs increased by £552,283 to £2,156,650. After making transfers to Designated and Restricted Funds, the General Fund Balance stood at £338,448 for the charity and £265,920 for the Group.

The Designated Fund Statement of Financial Activities shows funds that are still unrestricted and form part of overall unrestricted reserves. The ACC designates these funds by transfer from General Funds for meetings which do not take place every year. During 2016 there was an ACC Meeting. Designated Funds excluding the Pension deficit stand at £738,124 at 31 December 2016.

Following a triennial valuation on 2013, provision was made in 2014 for an increased actuarial loss on the Defined Benefit Pension Scheme (also see Note 13). The Trustees plan to eliminate the deficit with annual payments of £51,880 until 2027.

The Restricted Funds still fund vital parts of the ACC's work and the Trustees are grateful for the generous grants and donations which fund specific aspects of the work which the contributions of the member provinces do not cover (UN Office in New York and the Bible in the Life of the Church).

The Other Restricted Fund Balance at 31 December 2016 was £374,344 for the charity and £383,304 for the Group. The major constituent of the Restricted Funds was the Personal Emergencies Fund at £186,945 which uniquely assists clergy and members of their families facing personal medical emergencies.

The Endowment Fund at 31 December 2016 was £769,005 and has been set up to support the work of the Anglican Communion Office at the United Nations. The Property Fund (which is classified as a Restricted Fund) has been used to fund the St Andrew's House 2004 refurbishment costs and stands at £588,038. These costs are fully funded and are being depreciated over the life of the lease.

Investment Policy

The market value of investments held by ACC at 31 December 2016 was £942,128 made up of £758,027 of endowment funds and £184,101 of restricted funds.

The Endowment fund for the Anglican Communion Office at the UN are invested in Central Board of Finance (CBF) Church of England Investment Fund - Income Shares which meet the Trustees' ethical concerns and provide income. Up to 5% of the endowment can be drawn to fund ministry costs. During 2016 the income yield was 3.5% (2015 3.8%) and the market value of the units increased by 11.1% during 2016 (2015 increase 1.2%).

The restricted funds are for the Personal Emergencies Fund and there is an appetite for growth and a requirement for income to assist in meeting medical emergency costs. Funds have been invested in the Charities Official Investment Fund (COIF) - Income Units, which invests mainly in equities. Income yield during 2016 was 3.5% (2015 3.8%) and the market value of the units increased by 4.8% (2015 increase 1.4%).

The Trustees do not consider it prudent to invest General Funds for the longer term because reserves are scarce. Funds are therefore retained as cash and placed on bank deposit at the best rate obtainable.

Reserves Policy

During the year the Trustees have reviewed the ACC's requirements for free reserves in the light of the predominant risks to the organisation. The General Fund (core budget) costs are of the order of £1.2 million per annum and over 50% of these costs are associated with employment of staff.

The Trustees' policy is progressively to establish unrestricted reserves sufficient to cover three months of operating costs (around £300,000), as it is risky for Trustees and staff to enter into obligations and contracts where the obligations are not currently covered by free reserves.

The Trustees aim to maintain a balance on General Fund of £100,000 and to place surpluses of the charity above that figure to other Designated Reserves (Note 10). At the end of 2016, the balance on General Fund was £265,920 and the balance on other Designated Reserves was £306,005. Free reserves of the charity at 31 December 2016 were £243,774 (2015 £101,084). Free reserves are defined as the balance on the General Fund less the value of tangible fixed assets.

Donations in Kind

Reference has been made in this report to contributions from various quarters to the work of the ACC. Some contributions have been financial, others in the form of the provision of personnel or facilities. Among these donations in kind is office space for the ACOUN provided in New York by The Episcopal Church.

The Trustees also wish to acknowledge the generosity of the Trustees of the Community of St Andrew in enabling them to lease St Andrew's House for a peppercorn rent.

Grant-making Policies

The ACC administers grants in accordance with the restricted purposes for which the funds were originally donated. Grants are paid as soon as the applications have been received and approved.

Trustees' Responsibilities Statement in Relation to the Financial Statements

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare the annual report and financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the Trustees should follow best practice and:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the charity and which enable them to ascertain the financial position of the charity and ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Trustees are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are not aware of any relevant audit information that has not been disclosed to the charity's auditors. The Trustees have taken all the steps that ought to have been taken in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the charity's auditors are aware of that information.

Independent Auditors' Report to the Trustees of The Anglican Consultative Council

We have audited the financial statements of The Anglican Consultative Council for the year ended 31 December 2016 which comprise the Group Statement of Financial Activities, the Group and Charity Balance Sheets, the Group Statement of Cash Flows and the related Notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland".

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

As explained more fully in the Trustees' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 16, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charity for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Financial Reporting Council's (FRC's) Ethical Standards for Auditors. This report is made solely to the charity's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's members as a body for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

A description of the scope of an audit of financial statements is provided on the Financial Reporting Council's web-site at www.frc.org.uk/auditscopeukprivate.

Opinion on the financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the group and charity's affairs as at 31 December 2016 and of its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on the other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Report of the Trustees for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Trustees' report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charity and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have no identified material misstatements in the Trustees' report. We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the Trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements and the Trustees' report in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies exemption by preparing the Trustees report and from preparing a strategic report.

Notes to the Financial Statements

Note 1 – Accounting Policies

Accounting Conventions

- (a) The financial statements are prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015) – (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.
- (b) The consolidated accounts of the Group incorporate the accounts of the charity, The Anglican Consultative Council, and its subsidiary, Anglican Alliance. No separate Statement of Financial Activities is presented for the charity as permitted by the Companies Act. Gross income for the charity alone was £2,125,028 (2015 £1,967,299) and net expenditure of £62,516 (2015 net income £313,063).
- (c) The historic cost convention applies to the treatment of Tangible Fixed Assets, except for investments, which are included at market value. Expenditure above £800 is capitalised.
- (c) Income The most substantial source of income for the ACC is the contributions from the member Churches of the Anglican Communion. These contributions are accounted for on a cash received basis except that an accrual is made for late contributions received prior to the completion of the year's accounts. A similar principle is adopted in relation to certain substantial donations received late but supporting expenditure for the year. Otherwise, the accounts are kept on an accruals basis.
- (d) Expenditure All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been listed under the headings that aggregate all the costs related to that activity. Where costs cannot be directly attributed they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of the resources.

Direct costs including directly attributable salaries are allocated on an actual basis to the key strategic areas of activity.

Support staff costs are allocated on the basis of time spent. Premises and utility costs, depreciation and the salaries of the St Andrew's House warden and cleaning staff are allocated on the basis of floor space used.

Governance costs include the costs of Trustees meetings, audit and professional fees.

- (e) Investments Gains and Losses Investments are included at market value. Realised and unrealised gains and losses are calculated in relation to either, the market value at the end of the previous year, or, if purchase of the investments has been made in the same year as the sale, to cost.

- (f) Grant-making Policy The ACC administers grants in accordance with the restricted purposes for which the Funds were originally donated. Grants are paid as soon as the applications have been received and approved.
- (g) Funds are set aside annually for specific purposes (Designated Funds) and related expenses are charged to the appropriate fund. The balance on each fund is carried forward against expenses for future years and often includes an equalisation element for expenses incurred at irregular intervals. General and Designated Funds are classified as Unrestricted Funds available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the charitable objectives of ACC.
- (h) Restricted funds are funds subject to specific restrictions imposed by donors or funds provided from external sources for specific projects. The purposes of Restricted Funds are set out in the Notes to the Financial Statements.
- (i) The General Fund, together with any other current funds not immediately required to meet expenditure, is invested in short term deposits and the income arising there from is credited to general funds. However, income arising from the deposit or investment of funds in accounts are kept for specific projects accrues to the relevant funds.
- (j) The ACC has an endowment fund for the work of the Anglican Communion Office at the United Nations. This year, some of the Endowment has been spent on this ministry.
- (k) Depreciation Tangible fixed assets are depreciated on a straight line basis over their estimated useful life. The periods used are: Leasehold Property Improvements 18.5 years, Information Technology Equipment 4 years, Office Furniture and Equipment 5 years.
- (l) Foreign Currencies Assets, liabilities, revenues and costs expressed in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at rates of exchange ruling on the date the transactions occur, except for:
- monetary assets and liabilities which are translated at the rate ruling at the balance sheet date.
 - transactions to be settled at a contract date and trading transactions covered by a related forward contract which are translated at those contracted rates.
 - transactions on accounts kept by overseas entities and incorporated in these accounts are generally converted at the average rate for the year.
- (m) Pension Costs Contributions to the ACC's pension scheme in which the ACC participates are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate. The ACC participates in a Defined Contributions Scheme as well as a Defined Benefits Scheme. The Defined Benefits Scheme was closed to existing members for future service on 28 February 2010. The liability of the Defined Benefit Scheme is stated in accordance with FRS 102 on advice from the scheme actuaries.

- (n) Going concern In the trustees' report there is a review of financial performance and of the charity's reserves position. There are adequate financial resources and the charity is well placed to manage business risks. It is a reasonable expectation that there are adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. There are no known material uncertainties that call into doubt the charity's ability to continue. The accounts have therefore been prepared on the basis that the charity is a going concern.

Note 2 – Constitution

The Anglican Consultative Council is established by constitution subscribed to by all the member churches of the Anglican Communion and is a charity registered in England and Wales.

On 12 July 2010 following the constitutional changes approved by the member churches, the ACC was incorporated as a company limited by guarantee, the assets and liabilities were transferred to the new company on 31 December 2010.

Standing Committee/ ACC and Primates' Meeting These are financed by annual allocations from general funds to meet expenses related to meetings which may vary significantly from year to year. The ACC normally meets once every three years and the Primates' Meeting every two years.

Unity, Faith and Order This is financed by annual allocations from general funds to support the deepening of communion between the member-churches and meetings between representatives of the Anglican Communion and other Churches.

Mission The fund provides for meetings of Anglican Witness and the Anglican Alliance.

Personal Emergencies Fund The purpose of this fund is to meet urgent or critical medical needs of bishops, clergy, their families and dependants.

The Property Fund was used to fund the refurbishment and alteration costs to St Andrew's House in 2004. These costs are being depreciated over the life of the lease. No further income needs to be raised as the expenditure has been fully funded.

Anglican Communion Office at the United Nations The ACC has Category II (Special) status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), which permits consultation with the UN Secretariat on matters of mutual concern.

Theological Education The Department of Theological Education & Studies is funded by outside grants most notably from Trinity Church, Wall Street.

Continuing Indaba This project was set up during 2009 to develop and intensify relationship within the Anglican Communion by drawing on cultural models of consensus building for mutual creative action. This project ceased significant activities in 2016.

Church of England Defined Benefits Scheme

Anglican Consultative Council participates in the Defined Benefits Scheme (DBS) section of CWPF for lay staff. The Scheme is administered by the Church of England Pensions Board, which holds the assets of the schemes separately from those of the Employer and the other participating employers.

Defined Benefits Scheme

The DBS section of the Church Workers Pension Fund provides benefits for lay staff based on final pensionable salaries.

Anglican Consultative Council
Notes to the Accounts

For funding purposes, the DBS is divided into sub-pools in respect of each participating employer as well as a further sub-pool, known as the Life Risk Pool. The Life Risk Pool exists to share certain risks between employers, including those relating to mortality and post-retirement investment returns.

The division of the DBS into sub-pools is notional and is for the purpose of calculating ongoing contributions. They do not alter the fact that the assets of the DBS are held as a single trust fund out of which all the benefits are to be provided. From time to time, a notional premium is transferred from employers' sub-pools to the Life Risk Pool and all pensions and death benefits are paid from the Life Risk Pool.

It is not possible to attribute the scheme's assets and liabilities to specific employers, since each employer, through the Life Risk Pool, is exposed to actuarial risks associated with the current and former employees of other entities participating in the DBS. The scheme is considered to be a multi-employer scheme as described in Section 28 of FRS 102 and as such contributions are accounted for as if the Scheme were a defined contribution scheme. The pensions costs charged to the SoFA in the year are contributions payable towards benefits and expenses accrued in that year, plus any impact of deficit contributions (see below).

If, following an actuarial valuation of the Life Risk Pool, there is a surplus or deficit in the pool and the Actuary so recommends, further transfers may be made from the Life Risk Pool to the employers' sub-pools, or vice versa. The amounts to be transferred (and their allocation between the sub-pools) will be settled by the Church of England Pensions Board on the advice of the Actuary.

A valuation of the DBS is carried out once every three years, the most recent having been carried out as at 31 December 2013. In this valuation, the Life Risk Section was shown to be in deficit by £4.9m and £4.3m was notionally transferred from the employers' sub-pools to the Life Risk Pool. This increased the Employer contributions that would otherwise have been payable. The overall deficit of the Church of England DBS was £12.9m.

Following the valuation, the Employer has entered into an agreement with the Church Workers Pension Fund to pay expenses of £3,300 per year. In addition deficit payments of £51,880 per year have been agreed for 12 years from 1 April 2015 in respect of the shortfall in the Employer sub-pool. This obligation has been recognised as a liability within the Employer's financial statements.

Section 28.11A of FRS 102 requires agreed deficit recovery payments to be recognised as a liability. The movement in the provision is set out below:

	2016	2015
Balance sheet liability at 1 January	498,000	630,776
Deficit contribution paid	(52,000)	(47,126)
Remaining change to the balance sheet liability*(recognised in SoFA)	38,000	(85,650)
Balance sheet liability at 31 December	484,000	498,000

* Comprises change in agreed deficit recovery plan and change in discount rate between year-ends.

This liability represents the present value of the deficit contributions agreed as at the accounting date and has been valued using the following assumptions, set by reference to the duration of the deficit recovery payments:

	December 2016	December 2015	December 2014
Discount rate	1.70%	2.70%	1.80%

Church of England Pension Builder Scheme

The Anglican Consultative Council participates in the Pension Builder Scheme section of CWPF for lay staff. The Scheme is administered by the Church of England Pensions Board, which holds the assets of the schemes separately from those of the Employer and the other participating employers.

The Church Workers Pension Fund has a section known as the Defined Benefits Scheme, a deferred annuity section known as Pension Builder Classic and a cash balance section known as Pension Builder 2014.

Pension Builder Scheme

The Pension Builder Scheme of the Church Workers Pension Fund is made up of two sections, Pension Builder Classic and Pension Builder 2014, both of which are classed as defined benefit schemes.

Pension Builder Classic provides a pension for members for payment from retirement, accumulated from contributions paid and converted into a deferred annuity during employment based on terms set and reviewed by the Church of England Pensions Board from time to time. Bonuses may also be declared, depending upon the investment returns and other factors.

Pension Builder 2014 is a cash balance scheme that provides a lump sum that members use to provide benefits at retirement. Pension contributions are recorded in an account for each member. This account may have bonuses added by the Board before retirement. The bonuses depend on investment experience and other factors. There is no requirement for the Board to grant any bonuses. The account, plus any bonuses declared, is payable from members' Normal Pension Age.

There is no sub-division of assets between employers in each section of the Pension Builder Scheme.

The scheme is considered to be a multi-employer scheme as described in Section 28 of FRS 102. This means it is not possible to attribute the Pension Builder Scheme's assets and liabilities to specific employers and that contributions are accounted for as if the Scheme were a defined contribution scheme. The pensions costs charged to the SoFA in the year are contributions payable.

A valuation of the scheme is carried out once every three years. The most recent scheme valuation completed was carried out as at 31 December 2013. This revealed, on the ongoing assumptions used, a surplus of £0.5m. There is no requirement for deficit payments at the current time.

The Council contributes 10% of basic salary and the employees are required to contribute a minimum of 2.5%. The contributions charged to the SoFA during the year totalled £78,643 (2015 £73,095) and there were no contributions outstanding at the end of the year.

Note 14

There were no outstanding capital commitments at the year end.
